FINAL CONFLICT

ISSN 1463-614x

FC is produced every three months to offer people a change from the bland nonsense put out by the New World Order.

We publish serious and humorous material - so if you can't think for yourself, or take a joke: go and read the quasi-Tory 'Reaction Monthly'.

FC is an independent magazine, though editorially it supports the Third Position. Material printed doesn't necessarily reflect the view of FC or the TP. We're just a magazine trying to inform Nationalist bods.

© FC, Spring 99 is a 'ZogBuster' production.

FINAL CONFLICT

THE DEATH of Stephen Lawrence is likely to have far reaching implications for our entire society. There is no doubt that his death is regrettable. That is why we want an end to this multi-racial society. There is no justification for the murder of any innocent White or Black person. We want no more Stephen Lawrences to die, just as we don't want any more Richard Everitts to die.

However, to come down hard on legal racialist organisations — as the police seem intent on doing — is ridiculous for a number of reasons.

Firstly, it is now accepted that in areas which have large immigrant populations like Oldham or Bradford; there are more attacks against Whites than there are against Asians or Blacks! Plus of course, many attacks against Whites (muggings etc.) simply won't be listed as "racist". But where is the clampdown against immigrant groups? No! They are given grants by by local and national government and by the National Lottery.

Secondly, even if the five men accused (and found innocent!) of the murder were guilty, none of them is a member of any such group! So where is the justification? What we are witnessing is the attempt by Westminster and its political police to close down those who oppose their multi-racial nightmare State.

It is they who created this mess: not us! We simply propose a solution and stand up for the rights of White people... the same White people who are under attack day and night by arrogant immigrants who make their lives hell.

Where is the justice for these White people? Their plight is not even recognised by the system! Whilst Asians riot on the streets of Bradford, Slough and Oldham, and Blacks create their own 'no go areas' in London, Cardiff, Birmingham and Manchester, Whites are to be targeted by the system for daring to even mention the obvious, that the multi-racial State isn't working.

But it's worse than that. Now the system is saying that "racism" must be tackled in preschool children. This means they are worried about national pride being passed from parents to children. They are out to stop "racist" parents and to brainwash our children! This is a 1984 Bolshevik State that Stalin would have been proud of!

Whites are under attack on the streets. Yet it is White children and those who stand up for the rights of Whites in the Third Position who are being targeted by this system — a system so corrupt and in the pockets of Big Business, Union bureaucrats, Freemasonry Bankers and Brussels that it is prepared to strike against its own people to prop up this collapsing regime for a little longer.

After the Omagh bombing the Third Position warned about 'knee jerk' government laws that could be used against English patriots. Only recently our Zionist Home Secretary, Jack Straw, spoke of laws to target 'extremist' pro-lifers, animal rights activists and others... Now in the aftermath of the Lawrence enquiry we can see more 'knee jerk' laws in the pipeline.

As they strike out at more Whites, now is the time to join the Third Position and fight back for your land and her people!

If we do not fight back now, and fight back in an organised, orchestrated, legitimate way, then they will sweep away yet more of our rights and more of our birthright. We will lose every last vestige of nationhood and freedom we once had. It really is a case of: if not you, who? If not now, when?

FROM THE NEWS DESK

BIG BUSINESS REVEALS ITS AGENDA

FOR THOSE in any doubt about the agenda of Big Business (where have you been living you liberal creep?) the activities of Sainsbury's and The Body Shop should teach you a lesson!

Sainsbury's opened two of its shops on Christmas Day! That's right! The Jewish-owned supermarket is trying to demote Christmas to another day for making shekels.

No surprise there... after all Tescos (the original Jewish supermarket) made millions for 'Lady' Porter who moved poor people into asbestos ridden homes and fiddled things to stay in power on Tory-run Westminster council — then ran off to Israel when the proverbial hit the fan.

And 'Lord' Sainsbury, the 'New Labour' government minister linked to the Genetically Modified foods scandal (making more money out of ruining society and pushing things unnatural), is never one to sit back and leave White Christians to get on with their own thing. Not content with ruining small businesses, farmers and the like, he's now out to wreck Christmas.

Fellow 'New Labour' luvvie (and rich bitch) Anita Roddick is more open about her hatred of all things natural. This New Age freak sent "Christmas" cards with two faggots kissing to every MP!

No wonder society is in such a mess. This system and Big Business are out to attack anything decent. But we won't sit back and take such nonsense anymore.

That's why the Third Position has started an anti-Body Shop campaign. Pickets have started right across the UK. Help the campaign! Get some leaflets and spread the word.

And if Sainsbury's plan another Christmas day opening... well, watch this space!

ORDER SOME LEAFLETS!

Help the campaign against the pro-homosexual Body Shop 'supremo' Anita Roddick.

These are the rates for the leaflets:- 2,000 copies: £12 plus £8.55 postage; 1,000 copies: £6 plus £6.40 postage; 500 copies: £3 plus £5.15 postage. 250 copies: £1.50 plus £2.50 postage; 100 copies: 75p plus 95p postage.

Distribute leaflets outside Body Shops, on estates and to pro-family groups.

Send orders to: The Secretary, BCM ITP, London, WC1N 3XX. Cheques to 'TPFF'.

CRIMINALS GET LOTTERY MONEY!

THE TERRORIST-linked crooks at the Searchlight Educational Trust (see in-depth feature last issue) have been given just over £150,000 from the National Lottery Charities Board (NLCB), a move that should annoy all decent people!

Everyone who's been lied about by Searchlight, the people who have been burgled by Searchlight's publisher Gerry Gable and his cohorts and everyone who hates to see public money going to overtly political organisations should be up in arms!

Final Conflict has made a complaint to the NLCB which they are looking into as we go to press. We have asked other political organisations, activists etc. — regardless of ideological differences — to lodge complaints with the NLCB too.

Serious letters of complaint should be sent to: The National Lottery Charities Board, UK and Corporate Office, St. Vincent House, Suffolk Street, London SW1Y 4NL.

Post Script: After the last issue of FC, Searchlight brought out an issue with a feature on Julius Evola. Yet again they linked the TP to him... even after we dealt with this in the last FC! It seems the liars never changes their story, for fear of losing their "expert" status.

AMERICAN COMRADES ON THE MARCH!

THE AMERICAN COALITION OF THIRD POSITIONISTS (ACTP) are a relatively young organisation, but with the publication of their 'Where We Stand' and 'Neither Left Nor Right' newsletter, and their excellent web-site, they are making great inroads in America.

They have already opened an office in Colorado, as well as their national office in Maryland.

As part of a deal struck with them, American readers can now not only subscribe to Final Conflict via the ACTP for $24, but all FC merchandise (books, CDs, posters, badges and more) may be ordered through the ACTP.

American readers can find out more by writing to: ACTP, P.O. Box 1503, Rockville, MD 20849. e-mail: ACTP@3rd.org web-site: http://3rd.org

To subscribe to FC for 5 issues, just send $24 in cash, well concealed, with your name and address. You can also subscribe to The Voice of St. George for 10 issues, for $24.

THE FC 2000 FUND

WE STILL NEED a lot more donations if we are to reach our target (a very modest £1,000). The growth of FC depends on your support - so give what you can! Send all donations into: The Secretary, BCM 6358, London, WC1N 3XX, England. Cheques/Postal Orders should be made payable to 'FC 2000 Fund'.

Donations... £19 - EH, Ar. USA. £12 - LR, SW London. £9.60 - CH, Cardiff, Wales. £3 - FG, Pa. USA. £2.50 - GM, Hants. £2.64 - GM, Nottingham. £4.20 - DB, SE London. £10 - LN, Norway. £50 - AP, Italy. £12.50 - DI, Il., USA. Total to date = £764.84. Come on people! One big push - let's see if we can hit £1,000 by next issue!

Also, thanks to the following for donations to FC on the internet: Zlatko, Netherlands: £25. Chris, Manchester: £10. James, England: £20. Erne, Arkansas, USA £30. Herman the Saxon, USA: $25. Dennis, USA: $20. J-M, USA: $12. Ken, USA: $7. Sean, USA: $26. JFB, USA: $10. Charlie the Mechanic, USA: $10. Total: £153.75. The Real News

YOUTH FOR TRUTH

Militant pro-lifers are organising against the Westminster abortion law in Northern Ireland. One of the positive aspects to the conflict there is that both Protestant and Catholics are strong in their pro-life views.

We urge all FC readers in Northern Ireland to help 'Youth for Life' (a non-denominational group) and keep the Death Mills out of Ulster!

RED IDIOTS

The Oppressed have pressed a CD which includes Anti Fascist Action songs. Praised in a Marxist pro-IRA rag for dumping their 'Neither Red nor Racist' tag, Roddy Moreno who fronts The Oppressed started the supposedly 'non-political' Skinheads Against Racial Prejudice (SHARP) But it's now an open front group for the Marxists and pro-faggot sad types who hang around AFA.

ASIAN THUGS

Most racial attacks in Bradford are by Asians on Whites. That's official. But the Bradford Alliance Against Racial Harassment - a 'pc' Asian outfit - moans on about people saying 'Go Home Paki' to elderly Asian women!

White communities are under attack from Asian gangs who strike at young men, mums with kids and the elderly - and this is the best the enemy can come up with?

(For more details on BAARH's lottery funding see The Voice of St George #14).

RON DAVIES

After resigning as the leader of the Labour Party in Wales, Ron Davies had the cheek to open a faggot gym in Scotland.

Meanwhile Labour in Davies's Caerphilly constituency have short-listed him to stand for the area in the Welsh elections too! It seems that sodomy is no bar to power in Labour, as Mandelson, Brown, Smith and all the other faggots prove.

ALL AROUND THE WORLD . . .

STATE AND REDS TARGET BOOKSHOP IN BARCELONA

BOOKSHOP OWNER Pedro Varela was sentenced to five years imprisonment for racial hatred and holocaust denial at the end of 1998, writes FC's local correspondent. His bookshop, Librería Europa, (Barcelona, Spain) was targeted for daring to stock Nationalist and revisionist material. The outrageous sentence was appealed against and we are waiting for the High Court decision.

But on the 16th of January, events took a turn for the worse. Librería Europa was set on fire after a demonstration against the bookstore, organized by several Marxist, Zionist, and other criminal groups.

The police asked the bookshop's supporters to keep it closed to prevent violence. But the criminal elements destroyed the entrance, smashed the shop windows and burned thousands of books. The police did nothing. They were not present during the assault, leaving the shop at the mercy of the rent-a-mob.

Had the Spanish Nationalists known the police would 'stitch them up', no doubt they would have acted differently. Here's a lesson for everyone... We await further news.

HUNGARY: A meeting took place at the castle of Buda, where, in 1945 the Hungarian and German troops held out against the Red Army onslaught. When they eventually tried to break through on the 13th February 1945 (on the same day that 350,000 - 600,000 victims were incinerated beyond being identifiable by the 'allied' bombing of the refugee city, Dresden), in the battle and its aftermath, 67,000 of the 73,000 soldiers lost their lives defending Europe against Bolshevism. German, Slovak, Serbian and English Comrades joined their Hungarian Comrades.

HAIL TINTIN! HAIL DEGRELLE!

Tintin's politics were recently discussed in the French parliament. "Tintin belongs neither to the right nor to the left. He belongs elsewhere," French MP Didier Quentin said, "...he chose a third way."

Tintin was based on the Rexist Leon Degrelle who led a Walloon Division against the Bolsheviks in Russia.

Tintin 'Fascist and Proud' T-Shirts are available from FC. Black and Red on a Grey t-shirt, send £8.80 for yours to: Final Conflict, BCM 6358, London, WC1N 3XX. (£9.20 from Europe, £9.60 elsewhere).

VOORPOST IN ACTION

Voorpost militants took to the streets in three cities, Amsterdam, Utrecht and Eindhoven to rally against supermarket chain Edah that sells ritually slaughtered meat.

Some comrades also protested against an exhibition in a museum in the northern town of Groningen on 50 years of Chinese propaganda posters with the title "Paint it Red". A 4 metre long banner proclaiming MAO = MURDER. 65,000,000 deaths VOORPOST was unfurled. Leaflets about the current communist horrors against Tibet, human rights activists and Christians and the disgrace of glorifying the most inhumane system were applauded by passers-by and people who had visited the museum.

DAVID MITCHELL, R.I.P.

Wartime instrument maker David Mitchell 75, recently died only six months after giving a TV interview described by air historians as vital testimony about the most secret flight of WW2. The interview was for the film Hess The Appalling Truth and Dave was determined to speak out. Dave worked on the wreck of the Hess plane, a twin-engined Messershmit BF110 that crashed near Eaglesham in southern Scotland on the fateful evening of May 10th 1941. Its pilot had limped towards a Scottish farm labourer, trailing a parachute, and gave his name as Hauptmann Alfred Horn. Later he announced he was Hess, Hitler's deputy,and that he wanted to meet the Duke of Hamilton to discuss peace between Germany and Britain.

Dave was adamant that the prisoner,whoever he was, did not bail out of that plane at six thousand feet, but instead it had crashed landed. The headline in tonight's Burnley Telegraph reads: World War II Hess Mission Witness Dies.

Dave was a Patriotic Socialist who I met while selling papers door to door in 1986, he attended many meeting's and socialised with Nationalists. He will be sadly missed. Rest In Peace- Friend.

IN MEMORIAM - WIM WIJNGAARDEN

18-11-1998

On the day that the Dutch "justice department" outlawed and disbanded the Centre Party '86 (CP '86) its former-chairman Wim Wijngaarden died.

Wijngaarden was the driving force behind the miraculous resurrection of the party in 1990 when, already written off by the press and enemies on the left and right, the CP '86 gained four seats in the council elections. Wijngaarden was a warm advocate of rejuvenating the party that would lead to its finest hour in 1994 when the CP '86 gained 19 council seats. Born in Vlaardingen he worked as a travelling salesman after finishing his education. He lived in Amstelveen for 24 years where he started the volley ball club St. Martinus which would become, more than once, national champions.

In the late 70's he tried his luck in South Africa. He left the country after five years, disappointed by the political changes that would later lead the country to its current desolate state, but she would always keep a special place in his heart. In 1984 he joined the Centre Party and soon joined the general committee. After the juridical bankruptcy of the old party, Wim set up, and became the 'engine' of, the new CP '86.

He established good contacts with the German NPD and represented the party in the "Antwerp Pact" in 1993 where the various Dutch nationalist parties made commitments to not work against one another (a treaty that was ridiculed by Centrumdemocraten leader Janmaat the same day). As a result of house searches in September 1993 the "justice department" moved against the leaders of the CP '86 and Wijngaarden suffered a cerebral haemorrhage from which he never recovered. He decided to withdraw from active politics in the beginning of 1994, but he always followed the developments in "his" party with envious eyes. How ironic, that the disbandment of the CP '86 coincides with the death of it's founder?

Wim was a loyal Voorpost and ITP supporter and a religious Catholic who went to Rome although he was very ill in 1996. He was a true Dutch nationalist who always fought for the reunification of the Netherlands and Flanders.

Wim Wijngaarden, fighter and victim of Dutch democrazy. Voorpost and the ITP have lost a loyal friend. We (Noord-Nederlandse) 'Voorposters' will never forget him.

THE 23RD OF APRIL IS OUR DAY!

THE THIRD POSITION is launching possibly its biggest campaign to date. It aims to contact people right across England, from the worst inner city estates to the outlying rural regions. The details of the campaign follow. Please help this vital campaign and help make to take back England for the English!

FOR TOO LONG the people of England have been made to feel like second class citizens; ashamed of their culture, their history, their heritage and their Race!

The last few years has seen a natural fight back by the people of England. More people are unfurling the Cross of St. George and — despite the efforts of the politically correct and multi-racist anti-English mobs — proclaiming "We're proud to be English!"

That is why this year the Third Position is taking the fight to the enemy and stating: THE 23RD OF APRIL IS OUR DAY!

We demand that St. George's Day be given back to the English people! This will be a small, but vitally important step towards the English people reclaiming their nation.

100,000 STICKERS!

In the run up to St. George's Day 100,000 eye-catching stickers proclaiming THE 23RD OF APRIL IS OUR DAY will be distributed right across England and there will also be an increase in the output of St. George leaflets and posters.

This will serve a number of purposes:

- It will increase awareness of St. George's Day and increase English patriotism amongst the public.
- It will make the name 'Third Position' synonymous with English Nationalism and St. George's Day.
- It will bring in increased enquiries to the Third Position and thus strengthen the English Nationalist cause.

As such, this is possibly the most important Third Position campaign to date.

HOW YOU CAN HELP

There are a number of crucial ways you can help this campaign.

Firstly, you can take copies of our special St. George's Day sticker. Although larger than the 'normal' Third Position stickers, the price is being kept to £3 for 250. Plus, for those that can take 1,000 stickers there is a special price of £10.

Why not club together with friends and order a bumper package of stickers?

No profits will be made from the sale of this sticker - the important thing being to put them into circulation.

As such, another way you can help is to make a donation towards the costs of this campaign. For every £10 sent in, we can give 1,000 stickers out at football matches, meetings, concerts or to activists willing to take more stickers, but not able to afford them.

A £100 donation will mean another 10,000 St. George stickers in circulation!

If we get enough early donations for this campaign we will even increase the print-run of this vital sticker — so send in what you can, today!

ENGLAND ARISE!

England, arise! the long, long night is over,
Faint in the east behold the dawn appear;
Out of your evil dream of toil and sorrow,
Arise, O England, for the day is here!
From your fields and hills,
Hark! the answer swells:
Arise, O England, for the day is here!

People of England! all your valleys call you,
High in the rising sun the lark sings clear;
Will you dream on, let shameful slumber thrall you?
Will you disown your native land so dear?
Shall it die unheard,
That sweet pleading word?
Arise, O England, for the day is here!

Forth then, ye heroes, patriots and lovers,
Comrades of danger, poverty and scorn,
Mighty in faith of freedom, your great mother,
Giants refreshed in joy's new rising morn!
Come swell the song,
Silent now so long:
England is risen! And the day is here!

Edward Carpenter (1844-1929)

LEAFLETS AND POSTERS TOO

Plus there are the St. George leaflets and A2 posters also available — all of which carry the same eye-catching Red, White and Black artwork.

If you would like to take copies of the poster, sticker and/or leaflet just photocopy the form below and send it off today!

MAKE A DIFFERENCE!

With your help we can make a big difference. We can give the embattled people of England some hope in their hour of need and confidence in their long-battered heritage. Don't let your countrymen down!

Please photocopy this form

I want to help reclaim St. George's Day and take back England for the English!

LEARNING FROM THE PAST: LOOKING TO THE FUTURE

SOME PEOPLE look at the mess of industrial (or post industrial?) Britain and then look back at Feudal England — with its 'Green and Pleasant Land', Crusader warriors epoch and think that is something 'better' and worth re-inventing.

A BIG MESS

In some respects they are right. This Westminster State is a big mess and we have lost the plot somewhere along the way. In other words the peoples' of these islands have lost their contact with the soil, with their history, with the very 'spirit' of these Islands!

But those who think that Feudalism has something to offer us have fallen far short of the answer.

We are Distributists. We believe that everyone has the right to property. Therein lies real freedom.

Feudalism, on the other hand, meant that the English people had to live on land owned by the Lords (or under Capitalism: Big Business, Landowners and the banks...) as tenants. That's no answer! That's slavery.

THE CLANS

Of course there were some good examples of feudalism in practise. If you were lucky enough to get a good Lord he'd treat you as family - just as the Clan chiefs did with their 'Feudal' land system did in the Scottish Highlands. But if you had a bad Lord... then woe betide you! Look at the Highland clearances of the 18th and 19th Centuries as a perfect example. Westminster dictated that the Highlanders were 'rebels' and the Lords put their own standing before their people and the Clansfolk were forced off 'their' lands - proving beyond doubt that tenancy is not freedom.

So, even if there were examples of good Lords, Barons etc. - the very system was unjust. No property means no freedom.

Nationalists can never accept Feudalism. We believe that owning property (i.e. land, home and work) gives the family freedom. A tenant is not free.

PROPERTY

Communism negates property. The Party confiscates all in the name of the people and the Party Bosses run all with their corrupt bureaucracy and police state.

Anarchism negates property. It states 'property is theft' and believes in a communal existence where everything belongs to everyone. Nice sentiments... but unworkable given human nature and it means - as under Communism - nobody owns anything (the same mentality that means huge corruption in the EU parliament).

Capitalism negates property. The many are dispossessed and most property belongs to the banks and big business as the system worships "market forces" at the cost of personal freedoms. Financial institutions are the biggest landowners and most people are in debt to the banks.

Under Capitalism there is not even freedom for the family that holds the deeds to their own home and land. As Big Brother clamps down on more ordinary citizens (as opposed to drugs gangs etc.) we witness more people having their property confiscated for non-payment of usury-loans or taxes. Just look at how farmland is confiscated and then bought up by financial institutions or agri-business.

SEMBLANCE OF PROPERTY

There is only the semblance of property in modern-day Britain. The bulk of people are cramped into homes the size of shoe boxes, for which they pay banks five times their worth because of usury-loans. Then look at land ownership. People like Prince Charles own huge swathes of land whilst our people are left to rot on Council Estates.

It is we who fight for land, homes and work for all. Therefore only we can deliver freedom for the peoples of these islands!

The Capitalists, Communists and anarchists will deny the people property, as if they fear the people being free and independent.

Only when everyone owns their own property, with equal opportunity for all but unearned privilege for none will we have real freedom! This will be backed up with countrywide militias made up of the adult population, for defence of community and nation - against external enemies and internal would-be despots.

'THE CITY'

Freedom will never come whilst banks are allowed to continue with their usury; whilst the Bank of England is allowed to loan money into circulation; whilst 'the City' continues to make profits on peoples misery - job losses, house repossessions etc. (That some reactionary "nationalists" talk of harnessing 'The City' to the Nation proves them to be naive fools or the tools of Freemasonry).

So the next time you hear someone say that Third Positionists, Distributists, Back to the Land Nationalists etc. are in some way 'Feudalists' you can take them for the liars that they are.

As always - the Third Position stands for the widespread ownership of property. This is something that all the Capitalists, Communists, Anarchists and various hangers on do not like. They do not want the peoples of these islands to have freedom!

DISTRIBUTISM

The belief in the widespread ownership of property is called 'Distributism'. The Alternative by Hilaire Belloc is an excellent introduction to Distributism, and is available from FC for just £2.

WE PRACTICE WHAT WE PREACH!

THE MARK OF the politician is his hypocrisy. So often he'll stand for "family values" whilst cheating on his wife. He'll denounce drugs whilst members of his party frequently use them. And so on ad nauseum.

Indeed, over the last decade things have gotten so bad we regularly hear of greed, degeneracy, sodomy, bribery and much more of "our" politicians.

So what are we to do? The message is clear: Nationalists must — if we are to present a clear alternative to the system and its parties — do more than shout slogans and talk about morality, family and community as some abstract 'values'.

We must do something truly revolutionary in today's society! We must practise what we preach!

The Third Position has not ignored this vital point. Whilst we hear of certain "nationalists" holding socials and meetings in strip clubs, smoking dope, sleeping with non-White prostitutes, working with known homosexuals, using Party funds to stay in hotels, and more, the Third Position has been clear that morality is not an optional extra.

If we cheat on these most fundamental points then we are no better than the lying, cheating Freemason stooges in Westminster we claim to fight against.

If we cannot show that Nationalists are a cut above the slime in power then we will NEVER win - and, more to the point, we won't DESERVE to win!

People who say one thing and do another, don't offer an alternative to the system. They are simply another layer of careerist politicians. The system will not fear them as they know they can be bought, twisted and blackmailed.

The message of the best-selling 'Political Soldier' booklet (available from FC for £3) is: the means do not justify the ends. Those who ape the traitors in Westminster, with their lies, immorality and scheming will never make a difference.

It's as simple as that. Either we are true to our beliefs - to our Nation, people and ourselves - or the Nationalist struggle is pointless.

We can win! We must win! But only if we have an iron will and remain true, no matter what the adversity. Therein lies victory. Hypocrisy means defeat.

FRANK RENNICKE

GERMAN NATIONALIST FOLK SINGER INTERVIEWED!

Following on from our interview with the Third Positionist NPD's chairman Udo Voigt in #19 and the recent speech given by a Third Position member at the NPD's Federal Congress, we're pleased to publish this interview with the German Nationalist folk singer Frank Rennicke.

As with our interviews in #14/15 with Massimo Morsello and Carl Klang, we are pleased to promote Nationalist folk music as it is an area that needs further promotion and recognition.

Many thanks to our Dutch Comrade, Derk, for sending us this interview.

1. When did you start playing music?
FR: I was born in 1964 and started playing the guitar at the age of 16. I began writing my own songs and poems soon after that.

2. Besides the guitar, what other instruments do you play?
FR: On my recordings I have the support of other artists who play different instruments, but when I play live, I play the guitar and sometimes the harmonica.

3. Have you played concerts outside Germany, like German speaking Austria?
FR: Yes, I've played Austria, but I've also played Flanders, the Netherlands, France and of course all over Germany.

4. Do you sing any songs in languages other than German?
FR: I sing in German only, this is for my Fatherland.

5. Are you in contact with other folk singers?
FR: I am indeed. I know, quite well, some fellow Nationalist and patriotic ballad singers, like Comrade Daniel Eggers and Jorg Hahnel here in Germany.

6. What made your National Pride rise to the surface?
FR: I came from a good family and so I found my way quite easily into the Movement.

7. Are you with a political party or movement?
FR: I feel attached to the NPD (German National Democratic Party) and am a member of the JN (Young National Democrats).

8. Can you tell us if the Viking Youth is banned in Germany?
FR: In November 1994 the German system did outlaw Viking Youth. It is not clear on what grounds as it was only a movement for youth and so it would seem this was a gift for Israeli friends. For years I was active in this politically aware movement for young patriots and was a youth leader.

9. Do you read many magazines and books?
FR: I enjoy reading a lot, but also watch film-reports and movies. A book is not a good book because it was printed in better German days of 1933 - 1945. Many interesting books have also been printed after this time. Germany today is like George Orwell's book, '1984' a totally controlled world with an absolute police system.

10. Do you also write articles for magazines?
FR: Apart from interviews, when I find time, I do write sometimes for newsletters. There's a book written about my life as a patriot. It is called 'Singer for Germany', but it is only available in German.

11. What's your view on the struggle in Europe?
FR: Because of my concerts in foreign countries, I've seen some of the parties and movements around. I especially liked Vlaams Blok in Flanders and the Front National in France, they gave me a professional impression.

12. What do you see in the future and what are your plans?
FR: In Germany the struggle will be hard (musical and political) as we have to face a police state oppression, then the danger of the antifa and red-front, who use violence and terror against us.

As the father of my children I have to fight for a better future, so they can live in a free country.

For Europe and Fatherland,

Frank Rennicke, PO Box 1145, D-71135, Ehningen, Germany.

INGRID RIMLAND

THE AUTHOR OF THE LEBENSRAUM TRILOGY AND THE DAILY ZUNDEL GRAMS INTERVIEWED!

1. Our readers will have read of your ethnic background in the Lebensraum review (see next page). Can you tell us how you found your way into 'Nationalist' circles?

IR: It was really a gradual thing. I had for years made my living as a convention speaker and seminar leader and had made a respectable name as an author of an ethnic novel, The Wanderers, already published in 1977 and republished in 1978. In The Wanderers I described the German Army not as destroyers but as liberators. I expected some hostility to come my way, but nothing of the sort happened. I realized then that I could write in a "politically incorrect" vein as long as my writing was artistically poignant and intellectually respectable. Four years ago I discovered the Institute for Historical Review and found the people I met there congenial. It was natural for me to want to become more involved.

But it was only after the enormous hostility that came my way after I invented the Zundelsite to help publicize and explain Ernst Zündel's message to the world that I dug in my heels. I did not choose this struggle - it chose me. I essentially say now what I have said all along, to no controversy before I met Ernst Zundel: that there were parts to German history that were never told to the world. I saw myself in the beginning as a storyteller - no more. It was only after I was viciously attacked on the Net for my intellectual and moral integrity that I became an activist. The enemy has only himself to blame that I am now considered an intellectual cyber-leader.

2. Some of our readers will know you through your work with that other great German-North American, Ernst Zundel. Perhaps you can tell us some of the adventures you've gone through because of your internet work on behalf of Zundel?

IR: The Zundelsite is, by far, the most controversial and visible website of all the so-called nationalist sites. We have been formally attacked three times - twice by Germany, and now by Canada - and have been the fulcrum of the greatest censorship attempts in history in cyberspace. Every time you see a Blue Ribbon, you have to thank the Zundelsite. There was also one anonymous attack on our server system whereby somebody shot 2.8 million (!) messages into the Webcom operation - 200 messages per second, for 40 hours straight! Talk about drama around the Zundelsite! I believe that generations will still talk about the Wild West Days in cyberspace - with the Zundelsite right in the middle.

3. There is an anti-Revisionist organisation that you call the 'Nizkorites'. Can you tell us a little about them?

IR: Yes, there was (and still exists) a Holocaust Enforcer website named "The Nizkor Project" essentially envisioned as damage control. It was run by one slippery US-based fellow named Jamie McCarthy, a Canadian holohugger named Ken McVay, and supposedly a bunch of volunteers. The site was massive but grindingly boring, and Nizkorites made the mistake of linking to us and challenging us in our work. Anybody visiting Nizkor found out what "demonic" people posted on the Zundelsite - and were amazed at the quality of our Revisionist documentation and the calm and smart arguments in our texts. The rest is history.

4. When did you decide to write about the experiences of the German Mennonites? Did you envisage a three volume blockbuster at the time?

IR: Lebensraum started out as an expansion from the initial story of The Wanderers. Since I was of Mennonite background, naturally I found the Mennonite history intriguing. I absolutely did not visualize a trilogy. Do you know when you get pregnant that it is going to be triplets? I had no idea. The story grew and grew.

5. Your writing in the daily Z-Gram is always well-reasoned and your European Christian background is evident in your common sense approach to many issues. Do you think addressing the Hitler phenomena in the books will harm your cause, or do you believe that this matter - like any other - should be addressed by writers in an open, fair and honest way?

IR: Hitler was a product of his times. He was intensely meaningful to millions and millions all over the world, and we don't do our children any favour to keep on demonising a man who has long been dead and gone and distorting a part of history to please the Holocaust Enforcers - when the reality was clearly different. As a novelist, I am merely interested in the emotions that people experienced who experienced the Hitler times. I am not as interested in all the ins and outs of his philosophy and social innovations, although I believe that Adolf Hitler has left lessons we ignore at our peril. Will anybody faint from studying the man without bias - like any other impactful leader in history is studied?

6. What responses to the books have you had?

IR: I have had nothing but rave reviews. There has not been one single negative review of Lebensraum. All my reviews are posted on the Zundelsite and cannot be missed even by Internet beginners.

7. I understand copies of the three volumes were confiscated by the Canadian government as someone tried to take them across the border. Were you surprised by this?

IR: Yes, I was. I did expect some political trouble eventually - but my books were confiscated practically hot off the press. There was no time to read them, much less evaluate them. It was clearly a political seizure - or "detention", as Canada Customs puts it. Are we in such bad shape that we need concentration camps for books?

8. Do you envisage other literary endeavours or is this your crowning achievement?

IR: I see a great need for a primer or handbook for the movement, but I am not sure I will write it - I might just function as an editor. There is incredibly good writing and thinking out there, but someone needs to pull it together and package it for political consumption.

This is my parting shot: The nationalist movement is in bad need of direction. We have a lot of people claiming kinship to our goals who hurt us more than help. I'd like to see something done in that regard, but that is in the future. For now, I want to promote Lebensraum, and I ask all of your readers to help me.

LEBENSRAUM! Reviewed

In the spirit of these spiritless times, any author of a three-volume novel upholding such faded virtues as loyalty and honour would be considered "out of it." If the same novelist wove brief strands of tribute to Hitler in his or her pages, he or she would be deemed mad, a racist, an anti-Semite and a threat to the social order. Miraculously, such a writer and such a work exists. The author's name is Ingrid Rimland, and her work "Lebensraum!" is suffused with brilliant flashes of literary talent, albeit no "respectable" publisher would touch it, and no "respectable" critic would review it.

Tolstoyan in its sweep, "Lebensraum!" focuses on the trials and tribulations of a congregation of Christian fundamentalists called Mennonites. One group left Germany and settled in Ukraine at the behest of Catherine the Great, who wanted to capitalize on the Mennonites' agrarian expertise. The other group ended up in Kansas in the latter half of the 19th century. In each case the Mennonites transformed the land into farming utopias, colouring the fertile acres with amber waves of grain. Both communities, though separated by thousands of miles, were known for feeding a good part of the world. Rimland's description of farm life in both Ukraine and Kansas equals the best of the "Breadbasket" school of writing, whether in the New World or in the Old.

But paradises, like certain radioactive elements, have a short half-life. The Communist takeover of Ukraine after WWI and the brutal dispossession of the Kulaks, the prosperous Russian farmers, along with the Mennonites, was sheer horror. Those who resisted having their property and lands seized by the Reds were tortured, murdered or sent off to Siberia. The upshot was the fearful Ukrainian Holocaust. Rimland, who gives the official Jewish Holocaust short shrift, categorizes the Ukrainian as authentic and responsible for millions of deaths.

In describing the suffering of the Mennonites in Ukraine in a manner and style resembling Dante's Inferno, Rimland's prose occasionally rises to poetic heights. What people anywhere on earth, anywhere in history, have been put through such an ordeal! Rimland's writing is so powerful that the reader almost suffers as much as the victims. On the other hand, the Mennonites of Kansas, although they went through some bad times in the Great Depression and lost a considerable number of men in two world wars, practically had a joyride compared to the fate of their Ukrainian cousins.

Rimland's characters live and breathe. The storyline is uncluttered and right to the point. The reader not only learns what is going in, he feels what is going on. The trials and tribulations encountered on the trek of the displaced Germans, including the Mennonites, through Eastern Europe in WWII amounts to an excruciating Via Dolorosa, a gruesome anabasis. Soviet snipers, starvation and disease assured the lack of even the most elementary human necessities. Still the trekkers, with the sick in horse-drawn wagons, struggled on to reach a country as dangerous as the one they left.

In the last days of Berlin, the city becomes a huge fireball. Dodging her way through and around bombs, artillery shells and machine-gun fire was Erika, a 13-year-old girl wearing the uniform of a Hitler maiden and one of "Lebensraum!"s most sympathetic characters. At her defining moment, she approached a mound of rubble under which lay the body of her best friend. She wished her well and gave the Hitler salute, still convinced that, in the words of A. H. Clough, "Tis better to have fought and lost than never to have fought at all." Immediately afterwards she succumbed to days and nights of endless rapes. An American Negro, while on top of Erika, was shot dead by one of the few remaining Wehrmacht soldiers still alive and still in possession of a few bullets.

There are as many characters in Rimland's work as there are in "War and Peace", and they are drawn just as faithfully. Mennonites everywhere are united by race and religion, but divided by culture. In general, both the American and Ukrainian communities kept up their high moral standards. In the political context Americans picked up some democratic ideology. The Old World Ukrainians remained more tolerant of authority.

As for Rimland herself, as a very young girl she lived through many of the events she describes. Somehow or other she and her family got out of Germany at war's end and travelled to a small Mennonite colony in Paraguay, then to Canada, then to Kansas to be with her American cousins, finally to California where she won an award for an earlier novel, "The Wanderers", (Bantam Books, 1978) She now puts out a newsletter and what she calls ZGrams on the Internet.

It's hard to predict the fate of "Lebensraum!", a trilogy that deflates and defies all current literary themes. The three volumes portray a Führer with a human face and put the blame on Jewry for much of what has gone wrong in the world. Altogether it is a literary tour de force. The liberal-minority Jewish crowd, if they ever hear of her writing, will assign Rimland and all her works to the Devil.

In the end, if good writing triumphs over bad, if genius conquers all obstacles, "Lebensraum!", glowing with apt metaphors in a stultifying age, will become a literary icon.

BUT WHAT CAN I DO?

People often ask 'what can I do?' when asked to join the Nationalist cause. 'What difference will one person make?'

In the Third Position one person who is willing to DO THINGS (not an armchair warrior or a binge and whinge merchant) can make all the difference. One person can:

1. Set up a local contact-line for activists to publicise.
2. Pay for local leaflets, community newsletters etc.
3. Help design local materials.
4. Transport activists to papersales, events etc.
5. Do work such as photocopying material, mail-outs etc.
6. Provide a meeting place for local Squads, help plan Squad meetings (getting videos, photocopying sections of books...), etc.
7. Join the local residents group and provide 'inside' information for our community activities.
8. If a regular traveller - you can act as a 'pick up' for propaganda, mail, merchandise etc. from Head Office or regional headquarters.
9. Act as a local rep for one of our pressure groups or community front groups.
10. If computer literate, help us with by setting up a web-site for local activists, a front group or dedicated to a particular aspect of TP ideology (popular rule, ruralism etc.).
11. Send much needed donations into the TP Head Office.

And there are plenty of other things besides!

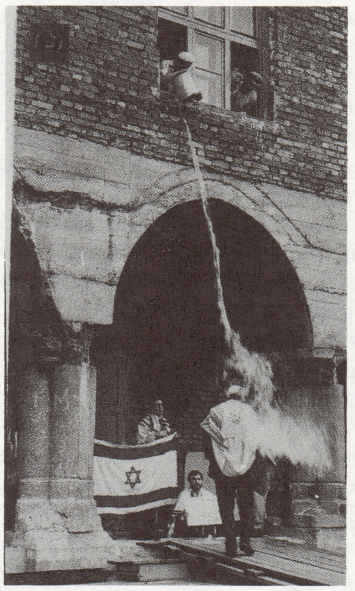
Of course we all want activists - dedicated militants on the streets taking the message to the people in person. But as well as the day to day leafleting, stickering, postering and paper-selling - there is so much more to do too!

For more info write into us or telephone: 0161 345 6932. An organiser will be more than happy to write, phone or meet with you to discuss ways in which you can help the movement.

A POLITICALLY INCORRECT
LOOK AT THOSE' CONCENTRATION CAMPS!

THE FOLLOWING is the story of an individual's journey from ignorance to knowledge as he traverses those sites holy to the Zionists, who persist in milking the myth of "organised genocide of the Jews" during WW2. It is a highly personal account, but as the author, Paul, says himself: "Most of the information quoted in this article can be found either on public display in the Camp Museums as official letters, or in the various books on sale in the bookshops of those Museums".

It was 1968 the first time I visited the site of what had been a German concentration camp. It was Bergen-Belsen about 60 kms south of Hamburg. I had seen all the usual horror films put out by Hollywood & Co. and I went into the camp feeling a bit like I was entering Hell's waiting rooms. In the following two years I visited Neuengamme near Hamburg and Dachau just outside Munich, and at that time I saw in the camps what the tour guides told me to see and yet I had quite a few questions the guides w(c)ould not answer... For example: 'Why is there a very small brass plaque next to the door in the Gas-chamber in Dachau that says 'built by the Americans after the war'? (removed a few years ago).



Patriot Poles pour water (or something...) over arrogant 'New York' Jews at Auschwitz who demand that they have a monopoly in suffering and reparations.

SICK OF IT

After that, more than 20 years went by without me thinking much more about the camps and the few thoughts I had about the 'Holocaust' were limited to, 'I'm getting damned sick of hearing about it!'

One day a friend of mine lent me the David Cole video about his visit to Auschwitz. I was stunned at seeing the prisoner's swimming pool, hearing about the football field and Jewish money, my belief systems collapsed. I watched the video so often I almost memorized it. Eventually I called the address of the people selling the video and ordered my own copy and 12 copies of the "Leuchter Report" to give away to friends.

In the following few months I bought and read every revisionist book I could get my hands on. I was hooked and I knew I had to see the swimming pool in Auschwitz for myself. 6 months later my wife and I had booked into a Hotel in Krakow, Poland.

Day 1 in Krakow. I made the mistake of booking the guided bus tour to Auschwitz camp, the tour included an old Russian propaganda movie and a guide who explained the "politically correct" parts of the Main Camp or Stammlager. We were shown the 'shooting wall' (where, it is alleged, 20,000 people were shot by the Nazis), the gallows, the prison, the piles of shoes, clothes and glasses... but we were not shown the swimming pool.

We were led into the dark and dingy Stammlager 'gas chamber' and with Zundel, Leuchter, Cole, et al ringing in my ears I asked the tour-guide the obvious question.

"So how did they get the dead bodies out of here?"

"What do you mean!" she answered. .

"I mean", I said, "There were supposedly thousands of cubic litres of deadly gas in this room, how did they get the bodies out of here without killing all the members of the Sonderkommando?"

"Oh", she answered, "They aired the place each time by opening all the doors and windows".

"Lady!" I said, "there are no windows in this chamber and only 20 paces over the street was the SS Hospital and Canteen, only 20 paces to the other side were the Gestapo Administration buildings. Less than 60 metres up the road Kommandant Hoess lived with his wife and children, and you want us to believe that every few hours the stupid Nazis flooded this whole area with thousands of cubic litres of poison gas?" She snorted something in Polish and left the room!

Shoved back in the tour bus we were herded over to Birkenau, three kilometres away. The bus was met by another guide who took us into a sleeping barrack, where he told us people were forced to sleep seven to a bed, which I thought wasn't such a bad way to spend the war, especially if you got to choose your bed mates.

Then it was into the next barrack, the toilet block. One raised squared off concrete tunnel runs the length of the barrack with about 200 holes in it for the people to sit on, not very comfortable... but if you like company? Anyway the guide proceeded to tell us that the SS only allowed the people 10 seconds to do their business.

"Wait a minute!" said my wife loudly. "I have two questions. Firstly, Around 200 people are sitting here doing their business, so just how many guards were standing here counting up to ten, and secondly; what did the guards do if the person was not finished, just drag them off the potty and maybe get poo all over the place?"

A few people from our bus laughed at that, but the look on the guide's face warned them that laughing in Birkenau was a definite 'No No'! That was another question that obviously was not worthy of an answer.

SWIMMING POOL

The next day my wife and I took a taxi the 60 km from Krakow back to Auschwitz main camp armed with a 35mm camera and a small digital video camera, and behind Blocks 6 & 7, I found the swimming pool. It looked great, it was full of clean rain water, the surrounding trees were green and it had nice wooden park benches next to it for people to sit on. I took dozens of photos of it. We also found the prisoners' Post Office (Twice weekly pick ups and deliveries). We found the prisoners' Brothel where up to 12 women were paid around 2 Reichs Marks per customer, we looked carefully at the wall where 20,000 prisoners were supposedly shot but we could not find one bullet mark on it. (The Nazis were obviously not only very neat & tidy, but accurate too).

We checked out the 'gas-chamber' again. It has two flimsy wooden doors, which are not sealed and one of these doors has a light glass panel in it, a good kick and you could be out on the street and running. The other outside door has a peep-hole which is absolutely useless because it looks straight at a concrete wall and not into the chamber itself. We revisited the Camp Museum and wondered why the Nazis had bothered building a court-room. What crime warranted a court trial when just a few hundred yards further up the road they were reportedly mass gassing thousands of people daily, just for being Jewish?

We also wondered about all the signs warning prisoners about the dangers of the surrounding electrified fences. I mean if you are going to gas all the people anyway, why bother warning them about electric fences?

We noticed in the Museum, they have massive piles of clothes and shoes etc. behind large glass windows and piled up to the roof. We also noticed that these piles of clothing etc. are stacked on 45 degree-angled false floors. In other words, the whole thing is a facade. There are 1/10 the clothes you believe are there.

HEATING

On day three we spent the whole day in Auschwitz Birkenau again. Most of the buildings in the camp have been burnt and destroyed, but one of the first things we noticed were the dozens of large brick chimneys still left standing. Every barrack had a long brick heating oven going the length of it. It was a very cool, cloudy day and then my wife said something only she would think of. "If this was an extermination camp, why the hell didn't they just turn off the heating"?

We inspected the huge delousing building. The prisoners called it the "Sauna". The Nazis went to a lot of trouble to maintain hygiene and keep the prisoners healthy. We crawled over and under the roof of the huge alleged gas chamber of Krematorium Two. This building was blown up by the Russians a few weeks after war ended, but the roof, which supposedly had four large holes/vents in it where the SS threw Zyklon B crystals down onto the victims below, just dropped down like a blanket, almost in one large piece... Well we spent a few hours looking for those holes or vents, but we couldn't find them. As many 'eyewitnesses' such as Kitty Hart actually claimed to have seen the SS using these holes we could only conclude that those evil Nazis have probably hidden them somewhere, where they may never be found.

Of course as there were definitely no holes in the roof of that chamber, then they obviously could not have killed all those millions of people by dropping Zyklon B crystals down on them and as they were not killing millions with gas, there can not have been millions of dead bodies lying around waiting to be disposed of in large burning pits, and as there are no massive forests within many kilometres of the camp, they would not have had any fuel to burn the missing millions of bodies anyway, but then, we could not find any huge burning pits either.

If by now you are noticing that there is absolutely no hard evidence of mass murders to be found in Auschwitz... you are right!

We left Poland with dozens of photos and lots of video footage of Auschwitz and heaps of books we had bought in the camp bookshop. Then one day while browsing my favourite web-sites I read that the UNESCO is raising millions of dollars to 'refurbish' Auschwitz. It was then I realized that certain tribes of people are now going re-create history in the way they want it to be learnt/taught in the future. These groups will rebuild chambers complete with roof holes that the original roofs did not have.

They will probably put gas-extractors in chambers that never had such extractors, and they might even go so far as to include bone crushing machines that also did not exist in Auschwitz, but without which, you cannot reduce larger human bones down to ash.

While reading this article I decided to document, photographically and on video, every concentration camp I could get into. That was three years ago and I have already taken thousands of photographs and miles of digital video of almost every camp and memorial site in Europe, including Auschwitz, Belsen, Buchenwald, Dachau, Haus am Wannsee, Ploetzensee, Fuehlsbuettel, Neuengamme, Mauthausen, Gusen, Sachsenhausen, Ravensbrueck... just to name a few. Some camps I've visited 10 times. Each time I visit their museums, buy books and read their information material. I have also interviewed a number of ex-prisoners and ex-guards of these camps and each time I learn something more. The pieces of information are starting to fit together like a huge puzzle.

CONTRADICTIONS

What continues to surprise me is how much of the information contained in the hundreds of politically correct books and "official" information brochures actually contradicts the 'official' Holocaust line the German Government is desperately trying to defend (by throwing all non-believers into prison).

In defence of the German Government, very few people are aware of the fact that one of the demands made by the Allies for the "Unconditional surrender" of German forces signed in 1945 was a "subjugation clause". This clause demanded all future German Governments, quote: "Take all responsibility and full guilt for WW2 and furthermore accept the Allied version of war crimes." In May 1945, the surrendering Germans had no other choice. Those Officers and men who defied such demands were brutally tortured and murdered. Given that the World Zionists declared war on Germany in 1933, and that Poland, under the contractual protection of the Allies, started imprisoning and murdering tens of thousands of German civilians living in Prussia and Silesia... the "Unconditional GUILT" demands made by the Allies were inhumane and pure lies.

I learnt that every German concentration camp had its own brothel with 10-20 volunteer prostitutes whom the male prisoners paid for their services. German Doctors made strict hygiene checks of prisoners and whores, and when they were available, the Germans gave the women (nicknamed Julias) soap, perfume, silk underwear, radios and record players.

A ZOO!

Apart from the occasional swimming pool, some camps had football fields and teams, a boxing ring, a movie theatre, many had small farms with animals for food. One camp even had a small zoo with bears on show. Most camps had vegetable gardens and often prisoners grew herbs for food and medical purposes. They had theatres where plays, concerts and dances were organised and they had orchestral instruments such as pianos, violins, etc. Many camps like Bergen-Belsen even allowed the prisoners to go out unguarded during the day and work for local farmers.

Written orders (on display) were issued from the SS High Command ordering that Jewish prisoners needing urgent operations were to be taken immediately to the closest hospital and be only operated on by Jewish doctors (so much for medical experiments). The Doctor in charge of the hospital in Auschwitz (credited with saving the lives of hundreds of sick Jewish patients) was Doctor Hadassah Rosensaft, a Jewess, who died only a few months ago in New York at the age of 85.

Food Rations in the camps were generally good and sometimes higher than the general German population was getting. Prisoners doing heavy labour were given extra rations. "Camp general orders" (On public display in the museum in Sachsenhausen) told prisoners that during their Free Time they were not to disturb other prisoners by loud whistling, singing, games or playing their radios too loud. (In other words... no loud parties!!)

CONCENTRATION CAMPS: THE TRUTH NOT THE PROPAGANDA!

The ashes of people who died in the camps were not thrown randomly onto the ground, into streams, bushes or ditches as you are lead to believe, but were interred in urns and in cases where family members could be contacted, these received a letter of condolence from the camp authorities and were often given the ashes and belongings of the deceased (letters on display). Many hundreds of clay urns are now on display in Buchenwald camp museum, and the written order forms for more urns can be seen in Auschwitz. According to correspondence from the authorities in Auschwitz, the camps were legally required to register the names of all people who died and report these deaths to at least three Government departments (the correspondence is on public display).

BARRACKS ATTACKED

Late in the war some concentration camps were attacked by Allied airforces and then strangely enough only the prisoners barracks were attacked and not the SS barracks (makes one wonder whose side these pilots were on?). Despite this the prisoners in concentration camps had much better chances of surviving the war than the German civilian population or the German Armed Forces. German cities came under almost nightly fire-bombing attacks and whereby official figures show that 6,851 people died in Belsen during the five years of war (a further 13,000 died of Typhus there in the two months after the British Forces took over the camp). Thirty-six thousand nine hundred and eighty civilians (36,980) were murdered in a few nights bombing of Hamburg, not to mention the hundreds of thousands burnt alive in Dresden and Pforzheim and other cities... More bombs, for example, were dropped on Berlin in one day, than on Britain during the whole war!

"Nowhere in any of the camps I have visited have I seen or found any proof of any intention to mass murder Jews or any other race of people"

German soldiers were under constant attack from bombs, bullets, flame-throwers, rockets, partisans, grenades, cold and hunger... and while the average prisoner in a concentration camp had a regular meal, heated barracks, radio, the occasional fling in the brothel or swimming pool, a game of 'footy' or a nightly concert or dance... the German soldier taken prisoner by the Russians was likely to have the soles of his feet torn off him or his eyes gouged out. (Soviet Russia did not sign the Geneva Convention).

On my travels documenting all these places I have met some weird and wonderful people. For example, Martin Zaidenstadt, a Polish Jew imprisoned in Dachau during the war. He obviously liked it so much he goes back into the camp every day to act as an unofficial tour guide. Martin now claims the camp had rooms full of mosquitoes to be used in Malaria experiments. He claims young trees were pulled down low and the prisoners legs were tied to the top of the tree and then the Nazis let go and the prisoner was catapulted up into the stratosphere... Martin is a loon and spends his days trying to sell his visiting cards and story to tourists.

Three Ukrainian ladies who had been imprisoned in Auschwitz during the war and now still live in the ex-Kommandantur building in the camp itself, laughed hysterically when I asked them about gas-chambers.

The American Jewish doctor I talked to in Berchtesgaden was friendly until he asked me why I was filming and photographing the ruins of Hitler's home. When I told him, he threatened to hit me with a brick from the ruins. I told him to go for it, but it was my wife who frightened him away by shouting at him "I'm proud to be a German!"

The German couple I met in Auschwitz who absolutely refused to go the 30 metres around the corner of the barracks to see the swimming pool, because they didn't believe me when I told them about it. They laughed at me and asked me how could I say such stupid things. Nothing I said could convince them to even go look!

The Puerto-Rican lady tourist who looked around the 'gas-chamber' in Auschwitz Stammlager and then said very loudly "It's all bull####!" and walked out.

NEVER USED AS A GAS CHAMBER

The American Jewish couple standing in the 'gas-chamber' in Dachau, she, fixated in total shock with her hand over her mouth... her husband went over and read the large sign that says 'Never used as a gas chamber' and told her about it... She was still frozen in shock. She said "What?" He repeated what he had said... "WHAT?", she said (still fixated in shock)... He told her a third time... She said "What?" again.

So I turned to her and said "For God's sake lady read the sign... it says in FIVE languages NEVER USED AS A GAS CHAMBER... you must be able to understand one of those languages!"

She spun around and said to me "I don't believe you!" and walked out of the chamber!

The crematoriums in the camps used tons of coke to cremate people. Coke, when burnt, leaves 10% of its mass behind as ash, and the coke ash was just dumped onto the ground. Human ashes were kept in urns. So I was surprised to see groups of Jewish students carrying Israeli flags, kneeling, paying homage to large mounds of coke ash! That's what happens when your parents lie to you!

THE JEWISH BANK

In Mauthausen camp museum I read that Hitler "gave" Theresienstadt to the Jews and had theatres, coffee shops, hardware stores, clothing shops, printing shops, and schools built and then gave them the 'JUEDISCHE SELBSTVERWALTUNGS BANK' (Bank of Jewish self-determination). He even had 53 million Reichsmarks transferred across to it. The Jews had bank accounts and savings books and printed their own bank notes in all denominations and made their own coins. They printed coloured invitation posters and attended opera, dance and theatre evenings. One man actually wrote an opera while there... and the Nazis supposedly did all this just to fool three Danish Red Cross representatives who visited Theresienstadt for a day. I'm sure these three really asked to see someone's bank account or savings book as proof? But the official story now is... "It was all a charade to fool the Red Cross".

Nowhere in any of the camps I have visited have I seen or found any proof of any intention to mass murder Jews or any other race of people. Nor have I seen or found any proof that people were mass murdered. I have seen a lot of material that has been 'Interpreted' to mean murder... Like a letter that was sent from Auschwitz camp authorities to HQ in Berlin asking for permission to send a truck to pick up a field-oven to be used to heat food when Jews were working outside of the camp. This letter is now being interpreted by the 'politically-correct' to prove that the Nazis used 'secret code words' to fool people and cover up their crimes. The 'field-kitchen', they interpret, actually meant a truckload of Zyklon B canisters? (Paranoia creeping in here guys?)

CONCENTRATION CAMPS: THE TRUTH NOT THE PROPAGANDA!

Unable to find any actual statement by the Nazis or proof of their theory that the Nazis intended to carry out genocide on certain tribes of people, many new-age historians have reverted to this 'secret-code' theory, meaning they believe the Nazis, wanting to hide their atrocities, reverted to a form of code language. Well a 'secret code' may work if only a select few know the real meanings of the words but in this case we are talking about whole armies of soldiers and bureaucrats being "in the know".

NO FEAR

And anyway, what did the Nazis have to be afraid of? That the Allies may declare all out war on them and fire bomb their cities and mass roast their civilians? The Allies were already doing that, so what else did the Germans have to be afraid of ?

So if you do decide to visit a German concentration camp site, remember to keep your bull#### meters turned on... Listen critically to what you are told by politically-correct tour guides and look critically at what is on display and in pamphlets. There is a pool in Auschwitz, there are buildings marked as brothels, there are huge delousing chambers on display but the few so-called "homicidal gas chambers" on show, were obviously never built nor used for that purpose!

I heard one young tour guide in Sachsenhausen tell his group "The Nazi's put 18 million people into concentration camps and murdered 11 million of them... Forget 6 million, he continued, 11 million were murdered!" Well if that young man is reading this article, all camp authorities were legally required to register all deaths and the official death count kept by the Red Cross in Arolsen for the 16 main camps (including Auschwitz) from 1938-1945 is 282,077 (two hundred and eighty-two thousand and seventy seven deaths) Some of these were executed as criminals, some were killed as a result of Allied air-attacks, (40 in one air-attack on Bergen -Belsen) most died of illness epidemics.

More Germans died in these camps from 1945-1950 under the Allies than other races died in them under the Germans. After the German army capitulated in May 1945 General Eisenhower let almost 1 million German PoW's die of starvation on empty fields. The Russians and Poles murdered even more soldiers and civilians.

To quote David Cole: "If piles of clothes and boots and glasses are proof of genocide, then most department stores are in trouble". And if you wait a few years until after the Hollywood set builders have done their job, a visit to one of these camps could be like an afternoon with the Munsters.

Paul.

THE THIRD POSITION AND THE NPD

FOLLOWING THE interview with NPD Chairman Udo Voigt in Final Conflict issue 19, we're delighted to have this report from the recent NPD Bundesparteitag. The NPD are recruiting young activists right across Germany — but especially in the former "East" Germany, where their opposition to both Capitalism AND Communism is very much appreciated by people who have been used and abused by both systems and are well aware of the failings of both.

OVER THE WEEKEND of the 23rd and 24th of January the links between the Third Position and the German Nationalist NPD were further consolidated when a member of the Third Position addressed the NPD's annual Federal Congress in the town of Mulda, near Dresden in Saxony.

450 - 500 NPD delegates from right across Germany were present (the NPD can pull many more at meetings open to all members and many thousands at their highly successful public rallies).

The Reds, in their rush to defend the status quo, had threatened to smash up the meeting place for weeks on end beforehand. In the end they used a molotov cocktail on the hall two days before the meeting, which did some minor damage — at most costing around £5,000, but probably more in the region of £2,000. Of course the Reds claimed £30,000 worth of damage and that the hall was unusable, but then we all know the difference between Red claims and reality...

As our photos show, not only was the damage limited, but the hall was used without any problems for two days! So much for Red claims!

The Reds were also supposed to march to the tune of tens of thousands to make it impossible for the NPD to even get to the hall. In the event about 400 turned up, some Autonome anarchist scum — the only clue we got of their presence was a whiff on the breeze, though that might have been a cowshed!

English Nationalists join their European Comrades.

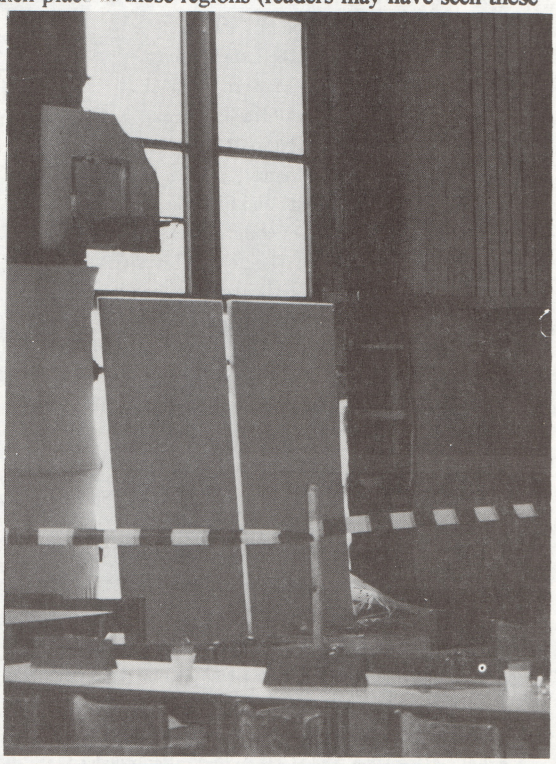
EX-RED POLICE

The local police were very good. Whereas most German coppers are traitors willing to bash German heads for the price of their pension, these are ex-Communist police; they don't want to go back to the old days because they know they were terrible, but at the same time they hate the German government because they feel that they have been betrayed — millions unemployed, run down cities, immigrants pouring in, drugs, crime etc. The result is that many feel that only the NPD is truly interested in all of the German people.

This is the potential powerhouse for the NPD — central and eastern Germany could be their launching pad. Most of their major rallies have taken place in these regions (readers may have seen these mass rallies on TV).

The meeting itself was overwhelmingly made up of young people — under 40 years of age — proving that the NPD is bringing in new people to Third Positionist politics and building a strong base for future growth.

The NPD is forced — under German 'democratic' law — to have certain



The Reds claim to have caused £30,000 worth of damage and to have stopped the meeting. Both claims are false. The meeting went ahead as planned and a mere 400 or so Reds turned up.

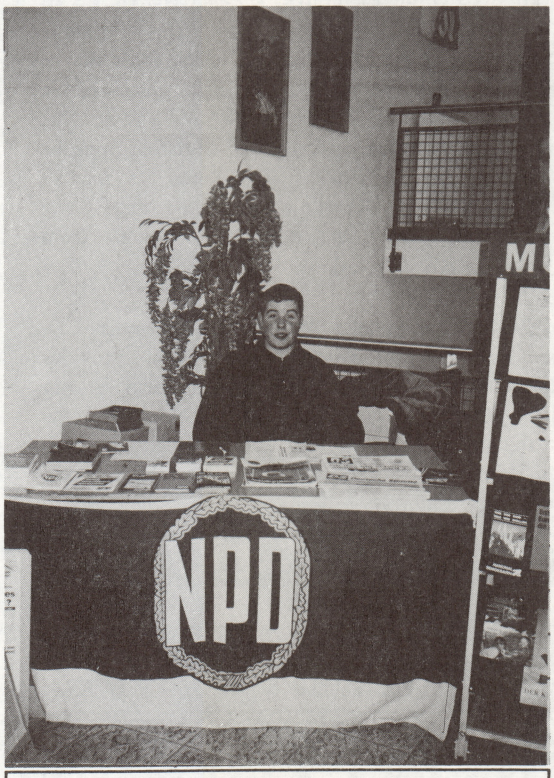
— COMRADES IN THE FIGHT FOR EUROPE

Comrades from Spain, France and Poland join English Comrades at a Third Position camp. Whilst fighting the EU bureaucrats and bankers, the TP movement is pan-European. This is more than the wishful thinking of yesteryear — this alliance exists from East to West, North to South.

structures and bureaucracies; but there is little doubt that with its vibrant leadership it is becoming ever more 'radical'. Its open links with the Third Position are proof positive of this.

MORAL PROGRAMME

The Third Position speaker gave a talk that lasted about 20 minutes. He spoke about the need for sacrifice, a moral programme and no compromise with any form of Reaction, something the Third Position in England has been very clear on. It was kept very simple, and went down very well with the gathered delegates. He received a standing ovation of some minutes duration. As the Third Position speaker had to leave early, he was given another standing ovation.



A young NPD activist at a literature stall.

There were two people present from the Iron Guard, with Ilarie Nedeloiu speaking in German for about 15 minutes. He spoke of the Iron Guard's 'Captain', Corneliu Codreanu, and the need to defend Christian civilization. The NPD are clearly becoming more responsive to the Legionary ideal, an ideal that is being embraced by more Nationalists around the world.

COUNTER POWER

What is clear from this visit is that the NPD want to learn and implement what they have seen in the Third Position, especially in respect of certain ideological positions (the Guilds, Usury etc.) and the Counter Power structures.

Thus, there will be several economic points of contact built between the TP and the NPD during 1999. Suffice to say that a number of important accords were agreed that will bring the movements closer together. In other words, the NPD in Germany and the TP in England are learning from each others situations and confident that this year will prove most productive.

As we move towards a new millennium we are confident that we can help build a new Europe of the Peoples!

MUSIC

For lots of new CD titles, including Skrewdriver, Ian Stuart Celtic Warrior, Ken & Stigger available direct from Boadicea Music, see page 13!

THE FLAME THAT NEVER DIES by Various Artists. ✟ This double CD set contains over two hours of songs in tribute to Ian Stuart. Skrewdriver covers and eulogies by bands from across Europe and North America - this is one title that is a must for your collection! ☺☺☺☺☺

A BALLAD EVENING IN DENMARK by Stigger. ✟ This CD is one of the best I've heard in a long time. Brilliant songs, good production... just pour yourself a beer, settle back and enjoy! Beautiful England, Night Trains, England My England, Suddenly, Old Albion - they're all here! What more could you ask for - except a signed photo from Ranting Ron? ☺☺☺☺☺

WAFFENBRUEDER by Mistreat and Kraftschlag. ✟ Anyone who's heard Mistreat's other CDs (available from FC) will know what to expect from these Finnish groovers - top notch Nationalist music! And Kraftschlag are professionals too! Their German Oi-Rock is very listenable! A very good CD. ☺☺☺☺

WINTER by Wolfseye. ✟ I didn't know what to expect from this CD. Wolfseye is a project by Nigel of Broadsword and ex of No Remorse. As such quality was likely to be good. There's a mixture of ballads and stuff a bit heavier. There's even a drinking song (the squaw with the size 24 feet!). ☺☺☺☺

THE LONELY RAVEN by Broadsword. ✟ The second CD put together by Nigel (see above) and Billy of Celtic Warrior. And what a follow-up! Good, solid, heavy RAC music. 'Revenge' and 'Savages' are absolute corkers, The Lonely Raven is a great ballad, and Excalibur is a fantastic ballad sung by a young lady with a great voice. All in all a superb CD ☺☺☺☺½

WHITE DYNAMITE (Destiny Rock Vol 2) by Various. ✟ Another pan-European compilation CD. To be honest, not as good as the first Destiny Rock, but there are 11 good songs from Honor, Gesta Bellica, Mistreat, Valhalla and Sturmwehr. ☺☺☺

THE LAND IS OURS by Roughneck Rebel. ✟ A superb American bluegrass/folk CD, originally released many years ago by New River Express on LP. Includes anti-busing song, 'The Land is Ours' (copied by No Remorse) which, along with a few others, is an old Irish melody. The best song has to be 'Four Black Flags', a tribute to four young Missouri farmers who died in the cause to save the family farm. Very stirring! ☺☺☺☺½

RISE AND CONQUER by Cross. ✟ Excellent, clear, traditional RAC skinhead music! Released a few years back, if you don't have this Canadian band on your playlist — you should! Best songs? How about the toe-tapping Hail the Celtic Cross and Nordic Warriors or the hilarious Great Cross of Fire? ☺☺☺☺

INVADER by Celtic Warrior. ✟ This CD is easily the best to date by this groovy Welsh band. Lyndon's powerful guitarwork shows and it's strong skinhead rock you're left with! It opens with 'Invader', a real stormer of a song! This'll get the shy Sharons grooving and no mistake! Then follows You Were the One a memorial to Stinko, the band's old bass player who passed away last year - it includes a sad spoken eulogy in English and Welsh (Goodnight... sleep well!). The CD carries on with one powerful song following another... superb! Rise to the Wings is an excellent sing-a-long song, To The Gallows dishes the truth on Paedophile Sidney Cooke and Highlander pays tribute to William Wallace ("In God's name they'll not kill Scotland" - Saor Alba!) with some excellent acoustic guitar, bagpipes and the sounds of battle. Ranting Ron says: "Get this CD or you're a race-mixer!" ☺☺☺☺☺

THE RIGHT WAY! by Involved Patriot. This is an American 'Thrash' style CD, so you'll know yourself if you'll like it or hate it. As with most bands like this, they do put in melodic bits and so on... but it's not my cup of tea. Also typical with American bands, there's lots of talk of killing immigrants and the like... There is also some confusion... One song goes on about the need for 'Nationalist unity' ("are we too busy fighting each other" - 'Don't You Care'), to be followed by a nonsense 'Sheep of Christ' song... The silliness is compounded when you look at the CD cover, which folds out to reveal Leon Degrelle, with a big write-up on how great he, his Rexists and the "holy crusade" against Bolshevik Russia were. This is the same Leon Degrelle who was a committed Christian from his earliest years - right through the Rexists, the SS and his Spanish exile - until his dying day. Was Degrelle a "sheep of Christ"? Or a heroic fighter for Christendom and decency? Available from Panzerfaust Records (see advert below) ☺☺½

STONEHAMMER by Stonehammer. ✟ A well put together CD, good music, good graphics etc. Griffin (of 'Aryan' fame) provides the lyrics and the music is superb - very professional, heavyish put not overpowering; plus some good acoustic bits too! My one complaint is that the choruses tend to be a little too repetitive which lets some songs down, but a good CD, with two Skrewdriver covers- This Little Piggy and Road to Valhalla. ☺☺☺☺

✟ - means it's available from Final Conflict by mail order. CDs are £11. Everything else individually priced (see review). Support Final Conflict — buy from Final Conflict!

TURE that it is... Given the recent complaint by NS veteran Colin Jordan - of North Yorkshire - one wonders if the Jews will find themselves the victims of Jack Straw's proposed law to outlaw organisations for preaching violence on religious grounds?

RISING - A Booklet for the Political Soldier. ✟ This is the first time the complete Rising series — has been republished in its entirety. This top quality printed booklet contains the texts from the original 5 magazines first published in the early 1980s.

An excellent booklet for old hands and younger Nationalists too! This will remind you exactly why radical Nationalism exists, what we're fighting for and why concession, compromise and liberalism are never acceptable.

The editors themselves admit that not everything was perfect in Rising, but when you consider the background to Rising (first published in 1981) this is hot stuff and it still rings true today!

One thing that I disagreed with was the total embrace of feudalism (see article on page 6). I think if written today the call to Ruralism would be just as strong, and the lessons of the Guilds would be given more prominence; but a Distributism, rather than feudalism, with its centralisation and tenants, would be the aim.

But that's one small point amongst countless others which are spot on. Culture, Banking, Ruralism, Race, Folk Community, Blood and Soil, Art, the Political Soldier: read and remember why we fight! Rising is available from FC for £2.50 plus postage.

WARNING: VACCINATIONS ARE DANGEROUS! by Pastor P. J. Peters. ✟ This respected American author gives an excellent introduction to the menaces of mass vaccination. Warnings from people in healthcare and evidence that people in authority are pushing vaccination on entire populations despite obvious risks to all will make you sit up and take notice! For more background on the threat from vaccination see The Voice of St. George #14. £1.20, including postage from FC. (Add usual postage outside UK).

INTOLERANCE OF, DISCRIMINATION AGAINST AND THE DEATH PENALTY FOR HOMOSEXUALS IS PRESCRIBED IN THE BIBLE by Pastor P. J. Peters. ✟ This superb booklet is available again from Final Conflict. It uses the sodomites own words to show their agenda and why they are the enemy of all decent people. A must read! £1.70 inc. postage from FC. (Add postage outside UK).

OUTDOOR PROJECTS FOR THE COUNTRY HOME by Peter Badger. Published by McGraw Hill. 216 pages. This book can be described as a woodworking guide for the 'homesteader'. Whether you have an urban garden, or a smallholding in the countryside, this book will help you put up fences, gates, chicken coops, shelters, sheds and countless things to help with land cultivation. For those seeking self-sufficiency, ecologically sound salvage based construction - this book fits the bill!

MEMOIR OF A FASCIST CHILDHOOD by Trevor Grundy. I picked this hardback book up for a fraction of the price in a bargain bookshop just one year after it was released, so I thought it might not amount to much. Indeed, the book amounts to one big whinge by the author against his parents and the Union Movement. He finds out his mum - who used to call 'Perish Judah' to him, give the fascist salute and have a signed photo of Mosley was in fact a Jewess. His dad comes through it all relatively unscathed. Grundy takes great delight in reporting on the misfits around Mosley - the homosexuals, the Welsh (here - watch it!) Hitler worshipper who commits suicide in the Rhine... but you feel so much is missing. What about the working class 'Salt of the Earth' East Enders?

The book really does no more than show human frailties. And for someone who moved so quickly from being a 'Youth Leader' to becoming an ultra-liberal, you expect (and get) a lot of sour grapes.

CONCERTS

Ian Stuart Memorial Concert, Wigan Sept 1998

Around 100 punters turned up to hear the newly formed Black Shirts who played well. Geordie band Warhammer, played their fast aggressive hardcore sound. Over from Sweden, Nibelungen's ballads went down a storm. No Remorse belted out some faves and Razors Edge finished everyone off with all their hits. A great atmosphere and a great venue made for one of the best gigs in ages.

Blood and Honour concert, Northants, 30th January 1999.

About 120 bods danced the night away to English Rose, Avalon and West London's finest The Legion of St. George. Even Robin Cook showed up selling FCs and attracted all the females! A brilliant show, well done to all concerned!

FROM A FELLOW "EXTREMIST"

Dear Final Conflict,

I am pleased to announce that through our combined efforts we have beat the globalists at their own game.

Together we have countered their propaganda at the international level with the release of the "EXTREMIST" CD in both Europe and The United States. This past summer, while wielding a sword of truth sheathed in music, Boadicea Music and Carl Klang, sliced through the thought police barricades, trampled over the moat surrounding their publishing houses and pierced the soft underbelly of their beastly global system of media control.

Together we proved that it can be done, that the combined forces of American and European Christian Patriotic Nationalists can join together and achieve a stunning victory over our adversaries.

I want to thank everyone who donated their precious time, money and talents to this victorious project (you know who you are). Thank you "Final Conflict Magazine" for making this idea become a reality.

By God we did it and only by God will we prevail in the end. I thank our Heavenly Father.

For Christ and His Kingdom,
Carl Klang

P.S. And remember "It's not over until we win!"

(Ed: Thanks Carl. This letter was especially welcome after some people stupidly claimed FC and the TP was in some way "anti Christian Identity".)

THESE GYPSIES AREN'T REFUGEES!

Dear FC,

A few weeks ago a couple of Romanian gypsies were fined at Kilmarnock sheriff court, they had been running a con involving travellers cheques at a number of travel agents and post offices in Glasgow and Ayrshire - they were eventually caught in Irvine post office.

Two of them were fined £2000 and were able to pay it on the spot after having a whip round amongst relatives - other "refugees" who were in court!

A.A.
Ayrshire, Scotland.

Ed: The idea that these gypsies are "refugees" - a line pushed by lying scum like Searchlight - is nonsense as is clearly proved here. I have been approached by "Romanian" gypsies near Victoria station, London, and they present a pathetic figure and cunningly pull at heart strings for money. I have seen these same gypsies in Romania where they also beg on the streets. The difference in Romania is that they are gangsters, drive round in Mercedes Benz cars and are involved in struggles over property etc. with the old Securitate people. In short they are a kind of mafia. We suggest it won't be long before their mafia becomes active here.

They are economic migrants eager to get as much money and free housing as they can. Ask the people of Dover who have put up with the blatant criminality of these people for months!

The "Romanian" gypsies are a non-European people, a 'left over' from the Ottoman Empire and the kindest thing we could do would be to send these people to their ancestral homeland - Asia!

PLEASE DON'T COMPROMISE

Dear FC,

Enclosed is a cheque for... please put the extra four pounds into your FC 2000 Fund. Please stay on course whatever you do. Compromise is always demeaning and begins the slide to status quo. From an atheist who believes in honour, truth, fair play and impeccable honesty... and decency,

EH, Arkansas, USA.

BARON ON SEARCHLIGHT

Gentlemen,

Your expose of the Searchlight Educational Trust is timely. Although polemical and containing a few inaccuracies it should certainly give any of Gable's trade union dupes food for thought.

The Searchlight Educational Trust accounts dated 03-11-97 list its directors as: D. Herman, Dr A. Kushner, Rev Kenneth Leach, Mr B. Moss, Mr R. Purkiss, Ms C. Supple, Mr C. Clayton (appointed 11 May 1997), Ms P Dhilon (appointed 11 May 1997), Ms M. Field (appointed 11 May 1997), Mr B. Williams (appointed 28 April 1997).

The SET received grants totalling £55,960 in 1996 and £7,354 in donations.

As you can see, it is somewhat less "Sectarian" than it used to be but the story is basically the same. Kushner, who belongs to the same club as Gable, is the most odious of "historians". Herman is also Jewish and has written for "Searchlight" in the past. Leach appears to be a well meaning dupe. Purkiss is Gable's token black and his inside man at the CRE. Supple is also a dupe of sorts, as you'll see from my critique of her book. I have no idea who the others are.

The errors, briefly, are as follows:

The libel settlement was not for half a million pounds but the total cost may have run to that.

Dave Roberts was cleared of conspiracy to burn the restaurant but convicted of conspiracy to assault. I think incitement would have been more appropriate. When the print works was torched recently, the police naturally suspected Carpel but, according to the printer, Carpel had the perfect alibi: he was on remand in Lewes Prison awaiting trial on some sort of antiques scam. A most serious error, which you might like to correct, is that Michael Cohen was not one of those convicted of burglary artifice with Gable. No one ever appears to have seen a photo of this guy. He has sometimes been confused with David Hoffman, a left wing if respectable Jewish photo-journalist.

Gable also wrote the "Farrakhan of worms" article rather than Hill. Hill's latest line, apparently, is that he didn't write any of the "Gable Street News" articles.

If you want to cause a few financial embarrassments for Gable and Co. you might like to raise the question of his and Hill's legal bills. Hill has recently retained Mischcon de Reya as his solicitors. I have it on good authority that before they will even consider acting for a client they want ten grand up front. Far be it for me to suggest that Hill or Gable have been paying their bills with trust money, but somebody might.

The Charity Commissioners are a lame duck; they wouldn't even take action over the funding of Centerprise Bookshop - see my booklet "Poison On The Rates".

I've written to one of SET's funders, quite a long time ago. Some trust or something; the info is in "When Hate Comes To Town". Like the media, they don't care. The New Statesman has exposed Gable more than once, even the Observer has ridiculed him, yet like the BBC they keep coming back to him because in the struggle against the mythical disease of racism anything goes.

The claim that Searchlight is a front for something called the Secret State is largely a myth. Gable and Carpel may indeed have claimed they were "helping" police with their inquiries, including Special Branch, but such claims are easily made and are often self-serving, especially in Carpel's case when he was facing a long stretch for arson.

Re my exposes: I take a non-Sectarian approach in most of my publications. Many of them are concerned with exposing liars; if people lie about the BNP or about the "Talmud" I see nothing strange in bringing this to the attention of a wider public.

Yours sincerely,
A Baron, London

THE TRUTH IS OUT THERE

IN FC #18 there was a brilliant article which poked fun at the UFO cultists who claim there must be life "out there".

Just as Darwinism is accepted without the evidence needed, so is extra terrestrial life. Here's not the place to go into the arguments - buy FC 18 if you didn't read the piece (skinflint!).

"But there is evidence!" cries the anorak eager to put life "out there" at any cost. Really? Then let's look at this evidence.

A few years ago crop circles were all the rage. Scientists came up with this theory or that theory. Yes - the same scientists who claim science rules all and the same sorts who claim "God is dead"... after all, what do we - modern people that we are need with an outdated thing like 'God'?

It has now been established that the whole crop circle thing was false. It was a scam perpetrated by a couple of bods (Doug Bower and friend) after a night down the pub in 1978. Eventually it caught the media's eye after they did a "spectacular" pattern in Hampshire in 1981.

Copy cat circles began appearing and even now some of the faithful anoraks still say that ETs are responsible.

So the next time you hear some prat going on about science and all the rest of it and how those who follow 'outdated' beliefs are "ignorant, superstitious masses" tell them about the ignorant, superstitious scientists, the crop circles and Doug Bower.

QUICK QUIZ.

Who, on January 26th, called repatriation "nazi"?

A. Searchlight magazine; B. PM Tony Blair; or C. A BNP organiser.

LOOK WHO'S DEFENDING TATCHELL

FAGGOT ACTIVIST Peter Tatchell was up in court after staging a protest in Canterbury Cathedral. He screeched and screamed over the Archbishop of Canterbury's sermon. And who should spring to his defence? The 'National Secular Society', which wrote a letter into the Times (30/11/98). And whose name should appear at the bottom of the letter, alongside luminaries such as Harold Pinter and Ludovic Kennedy? Claire Rayner. The Zionist scumbag who tells kids what's "wrong" and "right" and is always quick to promote sodomy to children in her role as Agony Aunt. No wonder morality is failing in this society.

BACK CHAT WITH RANTING RON

♦ Hooray for AS Roma fans who flew at least 3 Celtic Cross flags at their game against Leeds United. In the run up to the match some herbert even ran up to the cameras and shouted "Forza Nuova!". For those of you in the dark, FN are our lot in Italy...

♦ The War Cry is the paper of the Salvation Army. In its 25/4/98 edition as part of its regular feature 'Christians in the House' it looks at Ruth Kelly MP for Bolton West, who has impeccable credentials as a NWO stooge. She used to be an economist at the Bank of England. So what does this "New Labour Christian" say about abortion? She's against it - but doesn't want it outlawed for fear of "riots" and "backstreet abortions". How's that for Marxist rhetoric? What would she rather? Millions murdered? Profits for the Big Business that kills children? Kelly also skirts around the issue' of sodomites and lowering the age of consent for them by saying "people are sexually active far too young — whatever their sexuality." What does that mean Ruth? Either sodomy is wrong or it isn't. Welcome to the realm of the politician!

A FEW FUNNIES

Capital Cabs in Cardiff must be Ron types. Their phone number is 777 777!

Chutzpah: David Goldman, an 18 year-old, brutally murders his parents and siblings. He is arrested and convicted. On being asked if he has anything to say to the Court, he begs for leniency, understanding and compassion, as he is an orphan and has no close relatives.

Somerset Lanes

The modern world has ended for a while,
Quite out of sight;
Another world, compiled of hedge and stile
And flowers bright,
Is gentle as the other is hostile.

A turn or two and we already are
Where mankind ought
To be; redeemed from concrete, toxic car,
And juggernaut,
We drink the unseen medicine, pure air.

The Tor is in our eyes no matter where
Our eyes decide:
We see the pilgrims, black ants, climbing there
The strenuous side;
A view which ancient ramblers once did share.

This world's serene with cattle and with trees,
Those tranquil friends;
Our music, birds' and insects' melodies,
Soothed thoughts attends.
Did ever town's attractions half so please?

One moment here is better than long hours
In cafes, bars;
Each step confirms unchanging Nature's powers
'Gainst all life's wars.
We breathe, think, learn: her monarchy is ours.

What hurts us and perplexes we forget,
With daily pains;
When free put priceless joys again are met
Upon these lanes:
Green veins of timeless
sacred Somerset.
